What's included?

Your Holiday

The journey begins with travel north into Scotland, with comfort stops along the way for refreshments and lunch. A further short break may be made before continuing through the Highlands to arrive at the hotel in the Kingussie area in the early evening.

A visit to Aviemore includes a scenic return journey on the Strathspey Steam Railway through the Spey Valley. Afterwards there is free time to explore the town and enjoy lunch before an afternoon visit to the Highland Folk Museum.

Travel west through the Highlands to Kyle of Lochalsh with the opportunity for a glass-bottom boat trip before crossing the bridge onto the Isle of Skye. There will be free time on the island for lunch before returning to the hotel in the early evening.

A free day allows time to explore Kingussie and nearby Ruthven Barracks, or to travel further afield by train to places such as Pitlochry, Stirling, Edinburgh or Inverness. Another option is a visit to the Highland Wildlife Park by local bus or on an optional organised excursion.

A visit to Blair Castle at Blair Atholl includes time to explore the castle and grounds, followed by lunch and free time in the town of Pitlochry. There may also be time to browse local whisky and gin shops before returning to the hotel.

The return journey south includes a lunch stop at Gretna and a further refreshment break later in the afternoon before continuing home.
